PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF LATE AUTHORITY

NOW COMES Dana Albrecht, pro se, and respectfully requests that this Honorable Court also consider a recent opinion of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals before ruling on Kathleen Sternenberg’s Motion to Dismiss, and further states:

1. On October 26, 2023, Ms. Sternenberg’s Motion to Dismiss (Doc 5) was “referred to Magistrate Judge Talesha Leah Saint-Marc for proposed findings of fact and a recommendation as to its disposition.”
2. Four days later, on October 30, 2023, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals issued its published Opinion in Gibson v. Goldston, No. 22-1757. See Attachment 1.
3. Gibson is directly relevant to the issues raised in Ms. Sternenberg’s Motion to Dismiss (Doc 5).
4. Consequently, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court to take judicial notice of Gibson and to consider it as a “late authority.”

5. Plaintiff has contacted Ms. Sternenberg's counsel, who indicated she did not assent to this Motion.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff Dana Albrecht respectfully requests this Honorable Court:

- A) To take judicial notice of Gibson v. Goldston, 22-1757, (4th Cir.) and to consider it as a "late authority."
- B) For all other such relief as is just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,
